

WATSON

24th August 2017

Hi All

To any new members. The "Watson" is an occasional information sheet which covers any news or announcements in between Newsletters,

August Newsletter will be with you in the next day or so - a good read

ART CLASSES; Please note that the art class which was on Wednesday afternoons has now been changed to the Wednesday morning. The art classes are now on every Wednesday morning during term. 9.30 - 12.00 at Darley Neighbourhood House.

Tai Chi . Is back in action. Providence Hall, 11.00 am every Tuesday

CREATIVE WRITING : If anybody is interested in being part of a creative writing group, Robyn Youll, who currently takes a poetry class at Providence is willing and very able to lead such a writing group. Robyn is a published author with a lot of experience in writing. If we have sufficient interest then we can organise the gathering. Please let Helen or I know.

CHESS: Although not a group activity there may be a few of you who would like a game of Chess now and then. If so we may be able to put you in touch with like minded people and you can organise some games between yourselves. If interested let me know.

OTHER ITEMS:

Darley Neighbourhood House Annual meeting. Tuesday 29th August . 7.30 pm . DNH is a very good supporter of U3A and it would be nice if a few us could attend their AGM. If interested in attending they need to know ASAP for catering purposes . There will be a light supper after the meeting. Ph 5367 4390 and let Jeanette or Teresa know. If attending you could give a thought as to further involvement with them as they are looking for up to 3 Committee members. Queries to above contact number.

FILM TRIP ; On Thursday 21st September, Probus are organising a trip to Regent Theatre , Ballarat to see a movie. We are welcome to join them. The movie is "Victoria and Abdul " starring Judi Dench and is about a friendship which develops between an older woman and a young Indian clerk. It is a movie and lunch package and will cost $16.

The plan is to catch the 8.57 am train from Bacchus Marsh which arrives in Ballarat at 9.47 which is good timing for the 10.00 am start of the movie.

The theatre needs an indication of numbers for catering purposes so if you are interested in going please contact Iris Blyth at Probus on 5367 0982 by September 1st.

For The Diary

Garage Sale: The Neighbours Place - Emergency Foodbank is having a fundraising garage sale in the Uniting Church hall, Gisborne Road on Saturday September 9th , 8.30 am - 2.00 pm.

That's all for now folks. Enjoy yourself.

Regards

Adrian .
